

Golden Lime Public Company Limited (SUTHA) Congratulates Mr. Aniroot Wongnim
An Employee with a Hearing Impairment on Being Crowned Miss Deaf Queen Thailand 2026

Golden Lime Public Company Limited (SUTHA) is committed to promoting equality, diversity, and equal opportunities for all employees to realize their full potential. The Company has continuously supported Mr. Aniroot Wongnim, an employee with a hearing impairment, in his participation in the Miss Deaf Queen Thailand 2026 pageant.

In 2026, SUTHA is proud to congratulate Mr. Aniroot Wongnim on being crowned Miss Deaf Queen Thailand 2026. This achievement reflects his determination, talent, and self-confidence. It also demonstrates his readiness to represent the Deaf community by inspiring others, promoting equality, and raising awareness of the capabilities and contributions of Deaf people in Thailand and on the international stage.

The final round of the Miss Deaf Queen Thailand 2026 pageant was held on 4 July 2026, with Ms. Chanok Chantathong, Assistant Minister of Social Development and Human Security, presiding over the ceremony. The event featured 16 finalists and highlighted the potential, talent, and confidence of people with hearing impairments. It also encouraged society to recognize the value of diversity and equal opportunity, with Thai Sign Language serving as an important means of communication throughout the event.

SUTHA extends the sincere heartfelt congratulations to Mr. Aniroot Wongnim on being crowned Miss Deaf Queen Thailand 2026, to the five runners-up—Mr. Khomsan Sirichot, 1st Runner-up; Mr. Tosaphon Chuenchit, 2nd Runner-up; Mr. Winai Khamphilapaeng, 3rd Runner-up; Mr. Akkharaphon Phuangthapthim, 4th Runner-up; and Mr. Detbodin Amphairin, 5th Runner-up—and to Mr. Thawichok Suwannanut, recipient of the special award Miss Deaf Queen Stardom Aura by NBTC 2026.
